Virtual
Film Festival
2021

Welcome

I am pleased to welcome you to the PQA Virtual Film Festival 2021 screenings. This programme celebrates the work of our fantastic young filmmakers, teaching staff and academy Principals from around the UK.

The global circumstances have not deterred our epic young filmmakers from producing some magnificent work during lockdowns at home and remote PQA sessions. Some of this work is showcased here along with the very best films produced in the second half of 2019 and 2020 at our Academies. Physical awards will be delivered to Academies and presented when we are back face to face for a proper celebration!

We encourage students and their families to reach for the popcorn and snacks, make yourselves comfortable, and enjoy the feature length screenings of highly imaginative short films made by PQA Students from all over the UK. Also, giving you a chance to size-up the competition and enjoy something completely different!

Nick Pilton
Head of Film & Television PQA

PQA Torbay Presents 'Alice the Film

Now a short word from our sponsor - Well Principal

Initially this was a Show, an IMMERSIVE theatre show

Which meant YOU the audience would move from space to space experiencing the magic of wonderland, did you shrink, did you grow

Alice adventures at PQA was adapted especially for PQA by Les Enfant's Terrible's, Joe Hufton from their smash hit London show - Alice's Adventures Underground.

This is not the traditional Alice story and is set when Alice Returns to wonderland many years later

Dom from Les Enfant's Terrible even came down from London to do an amazing masterclass with our Students last February before our May show.

but sadly we had a minor hiccup in the form of a global pandemic

I mean rather inconvenient to say the least

So what to do? Hence Alice the FILM was born

Even during lockdown online, on zoom we started to adapt the show for stage for film. Inspiring by our masterclass exploring status our students spent time storyboarding their scenes using crazy camera angles and techniques to explore status.

Once we returned to PQA in person our bubbles were based on the scenes of the show which did limit our students ability to be crew sadly as they love it, yet we had an amazing BIG FILM Day with Theo's parent David & Yrsa bring in dolly track, cranes and extra lightning for all to see in action – WOW

Plus fabulous costumes from Davina at Daydream Design and borrowing many other awesome steam punk treasures to make this classic, edgy and current.

We went MAD on makeup, with students doing each other's it in Covid secure plus amazing work from the Dreamtime Davinia, Daniella and Yasmin.

After just two weeks from returning after Lockdown we started filming and got it all in the can within four weeks. Our students, their parents and whole team including musical theatre, comedy & drama where all focused on making ALICE the FILM, a steampunk Marvel!

TALK

PQA Enfield AM

We all need someone to talk to when we are facing personal challenges. Ruth learns that holding onto her problems and trying to cope on her own is having a negative impact on her mental and physical wellbeing. After finally confiding in a close friend, she finds the help that she has desperately been looking for. This short humanitarian film teaches us that we should not judge others, but that we should listen.

Reach

Edin Quine-Taylor

'Reach' is a one minute short film that hopes to inspire people to chase their passion no matter how unachievable it may seem. Many of us are dreamers, many of us wish to fulfil our potential, and strive for something that might be seen by others as beyond our reach. I hope to communicate to all of the other dreamers out there that it's okay to have a goal, a passion and that listening to your gut is more important than listening to a voice that tells you to stop, to give up. I created the film during the period of lockdown and because I did not have access to desired locations, it allowed me to experiment with new areas of filmmaking.
